Activity Report

On behalf of "Women Empowerment Cell" female students of Final year of all branches were deputed to attend a conference on 11th October 2023, 3 PM at Radisson Blu, ORR, Bangalore. The theme of the conference was "Inspire and Be Inspired".

The resource person was Mrs.Sajana Shankaran Head of People,Partner APAC Region. It was an enlightening and empowering event for all female students. The Convenor of Women Cell, Mrs.Suja warriar addressed the students on the importance of empowering women for the overall advancement and betterment of the families, communities, society and the country.

The conference was held in collaboration with NASSCOM. It provided a platform for our female students to connect, learn, and be inspired by accomplished women professionals and leaders in various fields. There was also a session on "Investing in Pursuit of Self" across four key dimensions: finance, time, self-care, and learning arranged for the female student community. In total 34 Female students of all branches attended the Conference.

Objectives:

- To help women understand their strength and potential.
- To sensitize the students on the need for respect and equal opportunity for women.
- To convene various sensitization programmes.

Outcomes:

- The participants got an idea about the parameters they must focus on in order to become a women entrepreneur.
- This gave them an opportunity to interact with sponsors like Wells Fargo, London Stock Exchange Group (LSEG),Continental Automotive,Standard Chartered,iBus,and Wolken Software amongst others.
- The students took part in the activity by bringing out their creativity and ideas in the best possible manner.
- The activity motivated the students to create awareness about the rights of a girl Child.
- The session was insightful and was attended by sizeable number of girl students with great zeal with their queries also resolved by the expert.
